Guerbet announces group purchasing agreement with Premier to distribute novel microcatheters

01.07.2019 18:19

PRINCETON, N.J., June 18, 2019 -- Guerbet LLC USA, the U.S. affiliate of the global specialist in contrast media products and solutions for diagnostic and interventional imaging today announced a group purchasing agreement with Premier Inc., a leading healthcare improvement company for Guerbet's SeQure and DraKon, two novel microcatheters intended for the infusion of therapeutic agents, contrast media and embolics into peripheral vessels.

This agreement allows Premier members, at their discretion, to access both microcatheters, which offer optimal intra-arterial navigation to interventionalists and provide novel solutions to further enhance and secure embolization procedures.

The SeQure device uses flow dynamics to create a fluid barrier designed to deliver treatment to a target vessel to reduce the risk of non-target embolization. The device features side slits specifically designed to allow the outflow of contrast media to create a fluid barrier around the microcatheter to reduce microspheres reflux and to aid in delivery to the target vessel. The DraKon peripheral device is a standard end hole microcatheter with optimized pushability, flexibility and torqueability.

"We are thrilled to work with Premier Inc. to provide their members with two of the leading microcatheter options in the USA," said Massimo Carrara, Guerbet Vice President for North America. "This agreement represents Guerbet's commitment to offering the best in interventional imaging in a rapidly evolving industry."
