Guerbet and MEDTRON announce close collaboration in Germany and Austria

Guerbet GmbH and MEDTRON AG intend to collaborate in the German and Austrian markets in the future.

16 May 2023: Guerbet GmbH (HRB 109368), a subsidiary of Guerbet, a global leader in contrast media and solutions for medical imaging, and MEDTRON AG (HRB 13752), one of Europe's leading manufacturers of state-of-the-art contrast media injectors, are taking advantage of the German Radiology Congress to announce a collaboration for the German and Austrian markets.

With this collaboration, both companies aim to improve the workflow between MEDTRON's injectors and Guerbet's contrast management solution for the benefit of users and patients. In addition, MEDTRON AG will distribute Guerbet's Contrast&Care® solution and Guerbet GmbH will distribute MEDTRON's injectors, in both directions on a non-exclusive basis. This agreement underlines the commitment of both companies to work closely together to provide innovative solutions for radiology professionals in Germany and Austria.

"MEDTRON's goal is to be a trusted and competent partner for the radiology community, understanding their challenges and providing value-added solutions. Working with Guerbet is the logical next step in achieving this goal and offering innovative, value-added solutions in an even more complete product portfolio. Adding Guerbet's high quality contrast management solution will achieve this."

Björn Jochems, Member of the Board, MEDTRON AG

"The collaboration with Medtron is an important milestone on Guerbet's path to continuously develop our portfolio. It is our commitment to provide innovative solutions that are serving our customers to cope better with their daily challenges. Together with Medtron we are aiming to improve data- and workflow as well as to enable analytics leading to an efficiency gain in Radiology departments and imaging centers."

Achim Berlis, General Manager of Guerbet GmbH
